EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

HONORING STUDENTS IN FREE ENTERPRISE

HON. JAMES C. GREENWOOD

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 13, 1999

Mr. GREENWOOD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to an outstanding organization in our country called Students In Free Enterprise.

Students In Free Enterprise (SIFE), is a nonprofit organization located on over 600 college campuses across the United States. SIFE has continually encouraged the free enterprise system through educational programs since its inception more than 20 years ago. Students in the organization dedicate their time and resources to helping others. SIFE's mission is to provide college students the best opportunity to develop leadership, teamwork, and communications skills through learning, practicing and teaching the principles of free enterprise. SIFE is not only involved with the encouragement of free enterprise, but has also worked closely with international charitable organizations. Students involved in this organization gain valuable leadership, communication, and business skills by teaching others, especially at-risk youth.

The Students In Free Enterprise organization is a valuable asset to the citizens of our country. In honor of their many charitable and civil contributions, I join my colleagues in the House of Representatives in recognizing May 18, 1999 as the third annual National Students In Free Enterprise Day.

I especially congratulate the Bucks County Community College SIFE chapter as they continue their mission of helping people achieve their dreams through free enterprise education.

RECOGNIZING COLLIS PAUL
CHANDLER

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 13, 1999

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to recognize the exceptional life and significant achievements of one of Colorado's oil and gas executives, Collis Paul Chandler. After 72 years of life, Collis Paul Chandler passed away May 6, 1999. While family, friends and colleagues remember the truly exceptional life of Collis Paul Chandler, I, too, would like to pay tribute to this remarkable man.

Collis Paul Chandler started his oil company in Colorado in 1954. A third generation independent oil man, Mr. Chandler was also a self made man. In the Navy, he fought bravely in World War II and returned to graduate from Purdue University with a bachelor of science degree in 1948. Mr. Chandler later served on the Purdue University Alumni Association board of directors as president. He also served on the board for the Public Service Company of Colorado and the Colorado National Bank. Additionally, he was also on the board of "Up With People". Mr. Chandler also served as chairman of the National Petroleum Council, the Natural Gas Supply Association and the Rocky Mountain Oil and Gas Association.

In 1994 Collis Chandler was awarded the American Petroleum Institutes' highest award, the Gold Medal for distinguished achievement. He was also awarded the Secretary of Energy's distinguished service medal, as well as the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association's Independent of the Year Award.

The rest of Collis Chandler's accomplishments are too numerous to list, but they comprise a long and impressive list. No doubt his accomplishments will be long remembered and admired. It is clear that the multitude of those who have come to know Collis Chandler will mourn his absence. However, Mr. Speaker, I am confident that, in spite of this profound loss, the family and friends of Collis Paul Chandler can take solace in the knowledge that each is a better person for having known him.

TRIBUTE TO LT. COL. SCOTT G.
ANDERSON

HON. JAMES T. WALSH

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 13, 1999

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, on June 30, 1999, Lt. Col. Scott G. Anderson is retiring as the Vice Commander for the 174 Fighter Wing, New York Air National Guard in Syracuse, NY. He assumed this position on Aug. 12, 1997. Previously, he was the Air Force Advisor for the Wing, serving as the active duty personnel representative for the 9th Air Force Commander, as well as assisting the 174th Fighter Wing in preparing for mobilization while attaining the highest possible level of combat readiness. He assumed this position on March 1, 1996.

Lt. Col. Anderson was born on March 2, 1956 in Fargo, ND, but now calls Syracuse, NY, home. He graduated from the U.S. Air Force Academy in 1978 receiving a commission and Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering. After earning his wings in June 1979 at Vance Air Force Base, OK, he was assigned to Hahn Air Base, Germany, as an operational F-4E fighter pilot, first with the 313th and then the 10th Tactical Fighter Squadrons.

Following Wild Weasel up-grade at George Air Force Base, CA, he was reassigned to Germany in the 81st Fighter Squadron, Spangdahlem Air Base in 1982. He served as Squadron Flight Scheduler and Weapons Officer and qualified as an Instructor Pilot in the F-4G. In April 1984 he was selected to attend the Air Force Fighter Weapons School at Nellis Air Force Base, NV, and following graduation returned to Spangdahlem as Chief of Weapons and Tactics for the 480th Fighter Squadron. In August 1985 he was assigned to the 4443rd Test and Evaluation Group, George Air Force Base, CA, as the Tactics Development and Evaluation Officer. Projects included HARM anti-radiation missile, Wild Weasel/F-16 mixed force tactics, and development of F-16 HASRM missile capability.

In August, 1990 he received his Masters of Business Administration from Golden Gate University, San Francisco, was selected for the U.S. Air Force Air Demonstration Squadron (Thunderbirds) as the Logistics Officer, and transitioned to the F-16. Flying the number "Seven" aircraft, he served as the Deputy Commander for Maintenance, flight check pilot, team evaluator, and safety observer for each air demonstration. He then served as Chief of Weapons and Tactics Documentation Division, 57th Test Group, Nellis Air Force Base, NV, responsible for developing Multi-Command tactics manuals while attached to the 422 Test and Evaluation Squadron as an F-16 Test and Evaluation pilot.

Prior to his current position with the 174 Fighter Wing, he was assigned to the Department of State as the Operational Program and Training Manager, Air Force Directorate, JUSMAG-K, Seoul, Korea, acting as in-country liaison and consultant between the United States Government, aerospace industry, and the Republic of Korea concerning defense acquisition projects. His programs included the Korean F-16 Fighter, airborne missiles and munitions, Early Warning and tactical intelligence acquisition systems, and interface for joint exercise and training programs.

Lt. Col. Anderson is a command pilot with over 3,400 flying hours. His military decorations include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal with two oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Commendation Medal with oak leaf cluster, and the Combat Readiness Medal with oak leaf cluster.

Lt. Col. Anderson is married to the former Theresa Garrison of Brooklyn Park, MN. They have four children: Clint, Jenny Lynn, Grant and Katie Rose.
